KINGS LANGLEY PARISH COUNCIL

TO ALL MEMBERS OF THE COUNCIL

You are hereby summoned to the Meeting of the Kings Langley Parish Council to be held on Tuesday 25th January 2022 at the Council Hall, Charter Court, Vicarage Lane, Kings Langley at 8:00pm to transact the business set out in the following agenda.

Please note that this meeting will be preceded by a meeting of the Planning & Licensing Committee, commencing at 7:30pm.

Welcome to this meeting of Kings Langley Parish Council. This is a “hybrid” meeting which means that participation can be in person in the Parish Council hall at Charter Court, Vicarage Lane or remotely, the instructions for which are shown below. There are a few points to note.

This is a formal Parish Council meeting and will be held, as always, using the agenda which the Clerk has published.

This meeting will be recorded for the purpose of producing the Minutes. (All public meetings can be subject to video recording by the Council or by members of the public, press and media to record the business that takes place.)

As with our usual meetings, members of the public will be given the opportunity to speak during public participation, but will not be permitted to speak at other times, unless invited to do so by the Chairman.

The Clerk and Chairman can mute or remove anyone who causes a nuisance, or abandon the meeting entirely, but of course, we hope that this won't be necessary.

How to participate in the meeting remotely:

On your computer or similar device:
